Hobart & William Smith Libraries Leaving CNY

Hobart & William Smith Colleges (HWS) will be ending its membership with CNY on June 30, 2017. Lending and borrowing is now disabled for HWS in order to allow enough time for materials currently loaned out to be returned to the owning libraries prior to June 30th.

A project management team from Innovative will keep Pam Jones and Jamie Kutzuba (HWS) informed as to the status of outstanding materials as HWS circulation with CNY winds down.

US Merchant Marine Academy Update

The US Merchant Marine Academy is in the implementation process of becoming active as the newest CNY member institution. The USMMA will be live for borrowing and lending in June 2017.

Technology Consultant Update

Tom Jacobson (Third Chapter Partners) and Pam Jones will be visiting six member libraries during the last week in March: Canisius College, Medaille College, RIT, Union College, Siena College, and Skidmore College. Tom will be talking with the directors and select library employees at each library.

Tom will also be presenting at the CNY Collaboration Day event on April 20th at Bard College.

He will arrive a day early to host two separate discussions on April 19th with any interested library directors (2:00pm-3:30pm) and library employees (3:30pm-5:00pm) in the Board Room at the Hampton Inn Kingston (1307 Ulster Avenue, Kingston, New York, 12401).

Information about registering for either session was sent to the directors.
