New E-Resource Licensing Offers

This quarter’s CNY discounted e-resource offers include membership with the Roper Center for Public Opinion and HeinOnline’s Government, Politics & Law (GPL) database.

Membership with the Roper Center provides unlimited access to all data archived at the center and the US question databank. Members also have access to all research tools, including: iPOLL with iPOLLPlus, RoperExpress, and the RoperExplorer analysis tool.

HeinOnline’s Government, Politics & Law (GPL) database provides access to more than 80 million pages of content across 80,000 titles and 195,000 volumes. As of June, the database also contains the United States Congressional Serials Set. HeinOnline also offers two databases for free to any interested institution: Slavery in America and the World: History, Culture & Law and Gun Regulation and Legislation in America.

Additional information about the offers, including cost, CNY negotiated discounts, and webinar registration, will be sent in a separate message to all listservs. Please contact Sarah Probst with questions.

ELD Updates & Reminders

The Pace University School of Law (VZL)'s HUB has changed from NYC to NEW. Please update all labels accordingly to ensure the promptest possible delivery.

ELD’s contract with the current courier service will expire in July 2020. To prepare for their upcoming RFP, ELD will be asking all locations to track and report statistics monthly starting in August. Additional information about how this will be conducted will be sent out by ELD directly in late July.

Please email sprobst@connectny.org with any issues or concerns relating to Empire Library Delivery.

Committee Meetings & Upcoming Events

July 11, 11:00am - 12:00pm: User Experience & Metadata Committee

July 17, 11:00am - 12:00pm: E-Resources Licensing Committee

July 22 - 27: Siena College’s 5th Annual Leadership Institute for Academic Library Managers
Colgate University Welcomes New University Librarian

Provost and Dean of Faculty, Tracey Hucks, announces:

“Courtney L. Young, head librarian and professor of women’s studies at Penn State University–Allegheny, has been named university librarian at Colgate. She will take up her duties on July 1.

Courtney brings to the position a national reputation as a recent president of the American Library Association (2014–2015), and she is well poised to work collaboratively with faculty, staff, students, and administrators on a new era of innovation and visionary direction for the university’s libraries.

At Penn State–Allegheny, Courtney oversees library operations, budgeting, and collection development. She participates in library instruction, reference, and research mentoring while developing and evaluating collections, resources, and services in support of the university’s diversity initiatives. She is an adviser to students in the university’s honors program and to undergraduates majoring in applied psychology.

Courtney has served as a librarian and women’s studies faculty member within the Penn State system for nearly 16 years. During her career, she has also held positions in libraries at Michigan State University and The Ohio State University.

The author and co-author of dozens of academic articles and book reviews, Courtney is a frequent presenter at conferences across the country and around the world. She speaks on issues of leadership; advocacy and diversity; mentorship; and the role of libraries in the life of an institution, its students, and its faculty.

Courtney currently chairs the ALA’s Executive Director Search Committee. She is co-chair of the Association of College and Research Libraries Keynotes Committee. She sits on the editorial boards of Collaborative Librarianship; International Journal of Information, Diversity & Inclusion; and The Political Librarian.

The recipient of numerous awards for distinguished service and achievement, Courtney is a past member of the alumni board at the College of Wooster, where she earned her bachelor’s degree in English, minoring in black studies and women’s studies before earning her master of science in library and information science from Simmons College.”

CNY Central Server Updates

As of June 5, the Central Server was upgraded to Resource Sharing 3.1 and the Central Encore Server to Encore 4.7. Now that the upgrade to Resource Sharing 3.1 has been completed, any member library running Sierra can upgrade to Sierra 4.0.

FY2017/2018 JSTOR EBA Title Selection

As you may know, CNY has an Evidenced Based Acquisition (EBA) program with JSTOR that coincides with CNY’s fiscal year (July - June). Eighty seven titles were purchased for CNY’s members on June 30, 2018. The E-book Committee selected the end of year purchases based on usage data and criteria that included top titles used by each institution, broadest used across all institutions, and overall highly used titles. MARC records of those purchased titles will arrive with the monthly JSTOR records files in the coming months.

Many thanks to the E-book Committee for all of their hard work!
Le Moyne College Announces Permanent Director

Following a national search, Inga H. Barnello, M.L.S., has been named director of the Noreen Reale Falcone Library at Le Moyne College, effective immediately. She has served as the library’s interim director since September 2017.

“Inga’s creativity and innovation, along with her mastery of library sciences and institutional knowledge, will serve the College well moving forward,” said Joe Marina, S.J., provost and vice president for academic affairs at the College. “I am so pleased that the search committee has suggested her for this role.”

Inga has worked in the Noreen Reale Falcone library for more than 35 years. She began her career as a periodicals and reference librarian in 1982, served as social science librarian and coordinator of library instruction from 1988 to 2009, was head of public services from 2010 to 2013 and collections and resource sharing librarian from 2013 to 2017, prior to being named interim director.

She has held leadership roles with the Association of College and Research Libraries (ACRL), the Eastern New York Chapter of the ACRL, and the ConnectNY library consortium. She has presented at a number of library conferences and has also taught and developed several workshops and tutorials during her time at Le Moyne.

“I look forward to working with everyone in the library and across campus to strengthen its role and resources for the benefit of our students and the entire College community,” said Inga. “I truly love Le Moyne and am honored to have been selected to be the next director.”

As director, she will oversee all aspects of the library, including personnel, budgets, facilities and collections. The director serves as a member of the Provost’s Council and is involved with academic planning on an ongoing basis.

She becomes library director during a time that the College is in the process of transforming the facility into a modern-day learning commons. This summer the second phase of that transformation is taking place, following work done during summer 2017 that resulted in the construction of the Quantitative Learning Center, Writing Center, and Student Success Center.

Online Learning Opportunities

July 10 - ProQuest - Ebook Central/Lib Central

10:00 - 11:00am EST

Session will cover: searching, purchasing methods, access permissions & mediation, alerts, custom branding, and reporting.

July 11 - EBSCO - EDS: Introduction

10:00 - 11:00am EST

Session will focus on key features and functionality of EDS through searching, manipulating the result list to locate search results; will also include overview of content searched in EDS as well as items returned from the library catalog.

July 17 - EBSCO - EDS: Gathering Statistics

12:00 - 1:00pm EST

Session will focus on how usage statistics are generated, available usage reports, and how to interpret usage reports, creating usage reports for non-EBSCO resources searched in EDS, and statistics for multiple EDS profiles.

August 14 - Innovative Interfaces, Inc. - Hot Topic: Engagement Basics Webinar, Session 1

1:00 - 3:00pm EST

Introductory survey of engagement measures and real world examples of how discussed techniques are employed. Hosted by Adelphi University’s Outreach and Promotion Librarian, Tatiana Bryant!

Did You Know…?

- Navigation controls for INN-Reach Circulation Reports have been fixed!
- Missed Collaboration Day 2018? All presentations and handouts are available for download here.
- ConnectNY will be opening up FY2018/2019 Committee Applications in late August. Think you’d like to serve on a Committee? Read about their charges and work on the CNY Committees & Working Groups page.
- Have a news item you’d like to share with the CNY Community? Email sprobst@connectny.org by 7/25 to have it included in August’s newsletter.